

CHECKLIST: POSTING VIDEO

- Review your video carefully under the Grandma rule: can your grandma see this?
- Be sure not to say anything mean or rude in your video
- If under 13, don't show your face in the video
- Be careful what you share and keep your private information private
- Ask your parents (or trusted adult) to review your video
- Get permission to record any additional people in your video
- Share the video with that person before you upload the video
- Get permission from that person to upload the video publicly (or privately)
- Get permission from the parents of anyone under 18
- Set viewing access to private, not public
- If you do go public, privately share video to get feedback beforehand
- If you allow comments on your video, go to settings and request to "hold comments before approval" so that you can review the content first
- If you do not want comments on your video, go to settings and then advanced settings to unclick the "allow comments" button
- Are you okay with no longer having "ownership" of the video?
- When posting videos, remove any geo-localization tags

CHECKLIST: WATCHING VIDEO

- When you want to watch a video, think of the Grandma rule: could you watch this video sitting next to your grandma?
- Have a shared family account so that your parents can make sure that the videos you watch and that are suggested are appropriate for your age
- With your parents approval, subscribe to YouTube channels to watch your favorites
- Respect the over 18 age limit: the limits exist for a reason and you cannot un-ring that bell once you have seen something truly horrifying
- If you do see something scary, rude, or offensive, let a trusted adult know
- Don't download video software from unknown sites
- Don't forward or share a video that shows someone being harassed or bullied
